- Bookshelves of reading books are available in every classroom for Years 7, 8 and 9 to read whenever possible.
- Reading is high profile across the Academy and special events are celebrated, i.e. National Poetry Day and World Book Day.
- The reading of authentic and challenging texts and reading aloud are part of all our students lessons, in all of their subjects, every day.
- Designated Reading Weeks are in place as an opportunity for all curricular areas to give our students further opportunities for wider reading read around their subject.
